Library Funds for Donation

- 00368 E   Library Enhancement and Innovation Fund: This fund finances library initiatives, programs, technology and innovations.
- 00866 E   Library Collections: This fund supports the purchase of books, media, maps, software and other information resources for the EMU Library.
- 00808 E   University Archives Development Fund: This fund helps us preserve the University's historical records and makes materials of special interest available on the web and through exhibits.
- 01839 E   Library Academic Projects Center Fund: This fund is used to purchase furniture, equipment, artwork, signage, specialized supplies, and other functional items, as well as programmatic needs, to support the operation and marketing of the Academic Projects Center (APC). Funds may also be used for speakers, programs, personnel stipends, honorariums, and other non-regular employee pay and benefits associated with staffing the APC.
- 01866 E   Children's Literature Fund: This fund enriches the holdings of the current collection, provides means to improve the surrounding furnishings and promotes the collection.
- 01902 E   Library Digitization Fund: This fund supports creating, maintaining and marketing digital collections.
- 01904 E   Library Faculty & Staff Development Fund: This fund is available for special training and education opportunities that fall outside the scope of what the library's regular budget is able to cover.
- 00370 E   Library General Endowment: This fund enhances the collection through the acquisition of books, journals, media resources, electronic information, and other needs as determined by the University Librarian.
- 01903 E   University Library EMU History Preservation & Celebration Fund: This fund is used to create exhibits, to hold events, to make materials available on the web, and other initiatives that celebrate the history of EMU.
- 00828 E   Bruce T. Halle Endowment: This endowment fund, when fully mature, will support the library at the discretion of the University Librarian.
