

Psychology Department
Faculty Areas of Interest (2022-2023)

Psychology Faculty offices are located on the third floor of the Mark Jefferson Science Complex
 Psychology Department | 341 Science Complex | Ypsilanti, MI 48197 | 734-487-1155

Eamonn Arble	301R 734-487-5988 earble2@emich.edu	Personality assessment and the psychometric evaluation and construction of new personality measures. Primary prevention of trauma among first responders, medical personnel, and vulnerable populations.
Jin Bo	301M 734-487-3416 jbo@emich.edu	Behavioral and Neural mechanisms of age-related changes on motor learning (e.g., sequence learning, adaptation). Promote physical activities to enhance cognitive and motor functions in individuals with motor difficulties, e.g. ASD, ADHD, DCD, MCI.
Adam Briggs	301K 734-487-2156 abbrigg11@emich.edu	Assessment and treatment of severe destructive behavior in children diagnosed with autism and other intellectual and developmental disabilities; developing effective training strategies for teaching caregivers and professionals to implement behavioral interventions; evaluating effects of supervision and teaching practices. Board Certified Behavior Analyst at the Doctoral level (BCBA-D) and a Licensed Behavior Analyst (LBA) in the state of Michigan.
Chong Man Chow	361A 734-487-2037 cchow@emich.edu	Family and peer relationships among adolescents, body image and eating behaviors, social support and coping, attachment theory, applied multivariate statistics (SEM, MLM, dyadic and longitudinal analyses)
Natalie Dove	341C 734-487-0189 ndove@emich.edu	Social and health psychology, sexual risk Reduction, HIV/AIDS, implicit attitudes, romantic relationship processes, virtual reality
Claudia Drossel	301B 734-487-0134 cdrossel@emich.edu	Behavioral health in midlife and beyond; clinical behavior analysis/behavior therapies (ACT, DBT, BA, FAP); functional analyses of cognition, learning, and memory; caregiver-care recipient relationships; caregiver training
Heather Janisse	361B 734-487-0096 hjanisse@emich.edu	Developmental psychology, the impact of the educational context and parent-child relationship on development of social, cognitive and health outcomes of at-risk youth (e.g., Head Start population), pediatric obesity, measurement and statistics
Stephen Jefferson	341G 734-487-0097 sjeffer2@emich.edu	African American racial identity theory, how implicit forms of prejudice influence the personality and behaviors of victims and perpetrators of discrimination, cross-cultural/multicultural issues in clinical psychology, and cultural predictors of somatization
Ellen Koch	Dean's office 214 Pray Harrold 734-487-4344 ellen.koch@emich.edu	Behavioral treatment of adult anxiety disorders and treatment outcome research (particularly augmented reality treatment for specific phobias), anxiety sensitivity, and PTSD

Renee Lajiness-O'Neill	301C 734-487-6713 rlajines@emich.edu	Pediatric neuropsychology; screening, risk detection, and surveillance of childhood disorders; exploring the cognitive, behavioral and neural correlates of neurodevelopmental disorders using neuropsychological and neurophysiological methods; social cognition/communication, attention
Dean Lauterbach	303A 734-487-0785 dlauterba@emich.edu	Posttraumatic stress disorder(s) and resilience/vulnerability to symptom development among children experiencing maltreatment. Longitudinal symptom presentation among children experiencing maltreatment and cross-cultural issues in response to child maltreatment.
Jamie Lawler	301F 734-487-0123 jlawler1@emich.edu	The impact of early life stress on the development of behavioral, emotional, and physiological regulation, on the connection between self-regulation and mental health, and on interventions to promote adaptive regulation in vulnerable children.
Tamara Loverich	341H 734-487-3228 tpenix@emich.edu	Emotion regulation & eating, assessment of avoidance, psychological inflexibility and mindfulness, clinical intervention for excessive avoidance and inflexibility through mindfulness and acceptance-based behavior therapies, and the intersection of cultural variables and all of the above
Alexandros Maragakis	301J 734-487-2147 amaragak@emich.edu	Using quality-improvement methods to develop and implement integrated primary and behavioral healthcare systems, and developing brief interventions to be used in the primary care setting
Rusty McIntyre	301N 734-487-2406 rmcinty4@emich.edu	Basic and applied social cognition as it applies to identification with and inspiration from role models, stereotype threat, social exclusion, and attitude representation and change
Elizabeth Neilson	361F & 361G Clinic 734-487-4987 eneilso1@emich.edu	Intersection of gender-based violence (e.g., sexual assault, intimate partner violence, etc), substance use, and reproductive and sexual health; gender and sexual minority health and health disparities; intersectional feminist psychology; evidence-based treatment of substance use, anxiety and trauma-related disorders
Angela Staples	301Q 734-487-1046 astaples@emich.edu	Parenting practices, consequences of sleep disruption on daytime behavior, naps and neural correlates of behavior in young children, and methods for studying development
James Todd	301A 734-487-0376 james.todd@emich.edu	Behavior analysis, history and philosophy of psychology, basic principles of behavior
Tom Waltz	301D 734-487-4852 twaltz1@emich.edu	Clinical behavior analysis, behavioral economics, verbal behavior, relational frame theory, translating basic behavioral research to clinical practice, dissemination and implementation of evidence-based psychotherapies