

Staffing Services Supporting Adults on the Autism Spectrum

Upbound Staffing is for adults on the autism spectrum fighting to overcome life-defining obstacles, biased stereotypes, and limiting exclusion to find purpose through employment. Upbound Staffing specializes in connecting individuals to employment in their communities throughout the state of Michigan. Our team helps individuals on the autism spectrum tackle personal obstacles, outshine inaccurate stereotypes, and break down barriers of exclusion with individualized development and support plans throughout the hiring process, transition into work, and during the first year of employment to ensure a successful experience.

Here's what we do for job seekers with Autism Spectrum Disorder:

- We help job candidates create effective resumes that will stand out from the sea of resumes vying for an employer's attention.
- We prepare job candidates for employer interviews.
- We support job candidates through every step of the hiring process.
- We work to educate and consult employer partners on diversified hiring and retention strategies.
- We offer professional, multidisciplinary on-the-job support through onboarding and beyond to ensure work performance, productivity, and engagement are upheld.
