RE: Emeritus status for Dr. K

Dr. Sukru Dogan (Don) Koyluoglu received an MA (1969) and PhD (1974) in Public Administration from New York University after completing the baccalaureate in Political Science (1969) from Ankara University in Ankara, Turkey.

Dr. K, as he was affectionately called by his students, began his affiliation with Eastern Michigan University as an adjunct faculty member in 1986, teaching on a part-time basis until he was appointed in 2001 as Coordinator of the MPA Program in the Department of Political Science. He retired officially from the university on July 1, 2010.

In the role of Coordinator, Don handled recruitment and program admissions, supported the advising process and completed the final Program of Study for almost all of the students who graduated for the past nine years. In addition, he managed the program database of both current students and program alumni. The evaluations of his work in this position have been uniformly positive.

In addition, Don taught on a regular basis covering a range of courses in both the undergraduate and graduate public administration programs. He was a popular teacher, with strong teaching evaluations across the board.

Over the past decade he also continued his research interests on privatization, public healthcare policy and public administration in Turkey, his native country.

The faculty of the department of political science voted unanimously on Friday September 17 to recommend Emeritus Status for Dr. "Don" Koyluoglu.
